SONGS

I Will Praise Him Still

When the morning falls on the farthest hill,
I will sing His name, I will praise Him still.
When dark trials come, and my heart is filled with the weight of doubt, I will praise Him still.

For the Lord, our God, He is strong to save
From the arms of death, from the deepest grave,
And he gave us life in His perfect will,
And by His good grace I will praise Him still.

In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found:
He is my light my strength my song,
This Cornerstone, this solid Ground,
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace
When fears are stilled when strivings cease!
My Comforter my all in all,
Here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, who took on flesh:
Fullness of God in helpless babe,
This Gift of love and righteousness
Scorned by the ones He came to save,
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
The wrath of God was satisfied,
For every sin on Him was laid:
Here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain,
Then bursting forth in glorious day,
Up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory,
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me,
For I am His and He is mine:
Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life no fear in death:
This is the power of Christ in me.
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man
Can ever pluck me from His hand,
Till He returns or calls me home,
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand!

His Mercy Is More

What love could remember no wrongs we have done?
Omniscient, all-knowing, He counts not their sum,
Thrown into a sea without bottom or shore,
Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.

Praise the Lord! His mercy is more!
Stronger than darkness, new every morn,
Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.

What patience would wait as we constantly roam?
What father so tender is calling us home?
He welcomes the weakest, the vilest, the poor,
Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.

What riches of kindness He lavished on us!
His blood was the payment, His life was the cost.
We stood b'neath a debt we could never afford,
Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.

Thy Mercy, My God

Thy mercy, my God, is the theme of my song,
The joy of my heart, and the boast of my tongue;
Thy free grace alone, from the first to the last
Has won my affections, and bound my soul fast.

Without thy sweet mercy I could not live here:
Sin would reduce me to utter despair,
But through thy free goodness, my spirits revive,
And He that first made me still keeps me alive.

Thy mercy is more than a match for my heart,
Which wonders to feel its own hardness depart,
Dissolved by thy goodness, I fall to the ground
And weep to the praise of the mercy I've found.

Great Father of mercies, thy goodness I own,
And the covenant love of thy crucified Son;
All praise to the Spirit, whose whisper divine
Seals mercy, and pardon, and righteousness mine.

Alleluia...

Crown Him With Many Crowns

Crown Him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon His throne,
Hark how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own.

Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him who died for Thee,
And hail Him as Thy matchless King
through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of life
Who triumphed o'er the grave
And rose victorious in the strife
For those He came to save.
His glories now we sing
Who died and rose on high
Who died eternal life to bring
And lives that death may die

Crown Him the Lord of lords
who over all doth reign,
Incarnate Word who, once on earth
for ransomed sinners slain,
Now lives in realms of light
where saints with angels sing
Their songs before Him day and night, their God, Redeemer, King.

Crown Him the Lord of heav'n,
enthroned in worlds above,
Crown Him the king to whom is giv'n
the wondrous name of Love,
Crown Him with many crowns,
as thrones before Him fall,
Crown Him, you kings, with many crowns
for He is King of all.
