Songs

Rejoice

Rejoice in the Lord now and always,
Sing it again: we rejoice.
Delight in the love He has shown us,
Gratefully lift up your voice.
His gentleness among us will join our hearts with praise.
We gather in His goodness, a family of grace.

With each breath He's given, praise the Lord
In these times we live in, we will praise the Lord.
Throughout every season, I am sure
We have every reason to praise the Lord.

Rejoice and be anxious for nothing,
Praying for all that you need.
Come with a song of thanksgiving,
Lay your requests at His feet.
His peace will fall upon us to guard our hearts and minds,
In Christ who reigns eternal, Shepherd of our lives.

Rejoice in the Lord now and always, Tell of the good He has done.
Worship the Lord to remember
all of the joy yet to come.
The hope that burns within us, the dark cannot destroy. With praise that's never-ending, we say again, Rejoice!

All I Have Is Christ

I once was lost in darkest night yet thought I knew the way
The sin that promised joy and life had led me to the grave.
I had no hope that You would own a rebel to Your will and if you had not loved me first I would refuse you still.

But as I ran my hell-bound race, indifferent to the cost,
You looked upon my helpless state and led me to the cross and I beheld God's love displayed: You suffered in my place,
You bore the wrath reserved for me, now all I know is grace!

Hallelujah! All I have is Christ!
Hallelujah! Jesus is my life!

Now, Lord, I would be Yours alone and live so all might see the strength to follow Your commands could never come from me.
O, Father, use my ransomed life in any way You choose,
and let my song forever be my only boast is You!

Jesus I My Cross Have Taken

Jesus, I my cross have taken,
All to leave and follow Thee;
Destitute, despised, forsaken,
Thou from hence my All shall be.
Perish every fond ambition,
All I've sought or hoped or known;
Yet how rich is my condition!
God and heaven are still my own.

Let the world despise and leave me,
They have left my Savior, too.
Human hearts and looks deceive me;
Thou art not, like them, untrue.
And while Thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate and friends disown me;
Show Thy face, and all is bright.

Go, then, earthly fame and treasure!
Come, disaster, scorn, and pain!
In Thy service, pain is pleasure;
With Thy favor, loss is gain.
I have called Thee Abba, Father!
I have stayed my heart on Thee.
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All must work for good to me.

Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.

Oh, 'tis not in grief to harm me
While Thy love is left to me;
Oh, 'twere not in joy to charm me
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

Take, my soul, thy full salvation;
Rise o'er sin and fear and care;
Joy to find in every station,
Something still to do or bear.
Think what Spirit dwells within thee,

Think what Father's smiles are thine,
Think what Savior died to win thee;
Child of heaven, canst thou repine?

Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer.
Heaven's eternal days before thee,
God's own hand shall guide us there.
Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days,
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

Man of Sorrows

"Man of Sorrows," what a name
For the Son of God, who came Ruined sinners to reclaim
Hallelujah! What a Savior

Bearing shame and scoffing rude,
In my place condemned He stood,
Sealed my pardon with His blood.
Guilty, vile, and helpless we,
Spotless Lamb of God was He.

Full atonement! Can it be?
Lifted up was He to die;
"It is finished," was His cry;
Now in Heaven exalted high!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! What a Savior

When He comes, our glorious King,
All His ransomed home to bring,
Then anew this song we'll sing:

Hallelujah! What a Savior

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! What a Savior
