MISSIONARY UPDATE

Bryan and Kara Twombly

Bryan and Kara Twombly and their three children just moved to Madang, Papua New Guinea with the goal of church planting, church strengthening, and pastoral training.

Their goals early on are to learn the language, and enjoy learning and living in their new home. After an unexpected waiting period and all the travel, they finally arrived in Madang a week or two ago.

Their family is settling into a new climate and culture, and Bryan and Kara are currently aiming at spending 20 hours + each week learning the language.

Prayer requests

- Pray for them as they are transitioning into life in Madang, and settling into being there long-term.
- Specifically, pray for Kara and Bryan to individually walk faithfully as believers - for humility and mental strength as they learn new things, and especially the language.
- Pray for their marriage to be strong - that they would communicate well and serve one another
- Pray that their kids would all continue to do well as they adjust and learn.
- Pray for their relationships in Madang
- Pray that their dependence would be in God, and not themselves.
